

In 1971 Jungle Jim set up his first semi-permanent stand in a parking lot in Hamilton. He worked 21-hour days, slept on the premises and showered under a hose.

In 1974 he found the land he wanted to purchase but he needed a co-signer and Fairfield city officials were reluctant to okay a permit for a fruit and vegetable market but Jim found two guardian angels - Fanny Cunagin & Esther Benzing. From there the rest is history!
